

JILL CENTER

Director of Children and Youth Ministries

Jill is happy to have served at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church in ministry to children, youth and their families since the summer of 2009. Raised in the Episcopal Church, she is a strong believer in the power of a faith community in the lives of its families. Jill holds a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre and Language Theory from the Johnston Center for Integrative Studies at the University of Redlands and has pursued Master's level studies in both Education and Child and Adolescent Psychology. A world traveler, Jill enjoys seeing new places and immersing herself in different cultures. She believes that Christian Formation is a lifelong venture that can come in many forms and everyone deserves the opportunity to be heard and respected without judgement and accepted with the love of Jesus Christ. Jill is passionate about bringing children and youth into an understanding of just how BIG God's love is!

Her favorite Bible verse is: For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works that I know very well. – Psalm 139:13-14
